Block: Revision Tray: User Guide & Pedagogical Guide

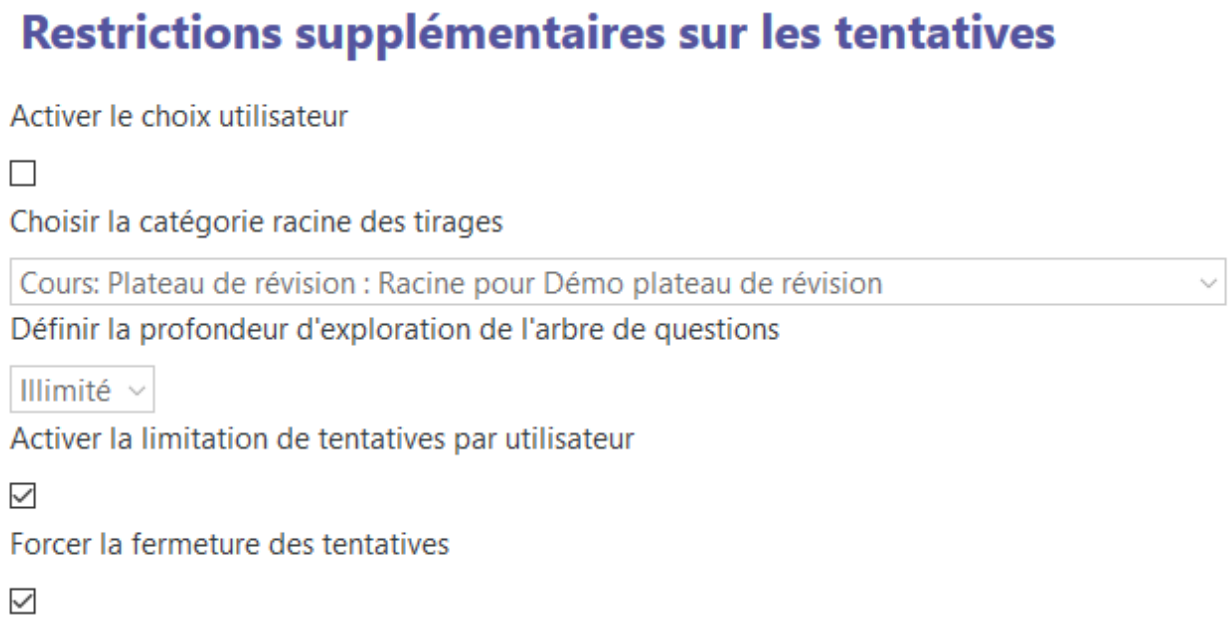

Organisation of the mock exam test

It must be built with random questions (and not random questions with constraints), possibly with a limit on the number of attempts (global or individual) - See the user attempt limits block.

Note: The number of attempts is not set by the "standard" settings of the mock exam test, but through the revision tray settings.

Mock exam attempt number settings:

Attempts are limited per user through the settings of the accessory block User attempt limits for the users And set through the tray settings
