MY Dashboard Page: Use Case 6

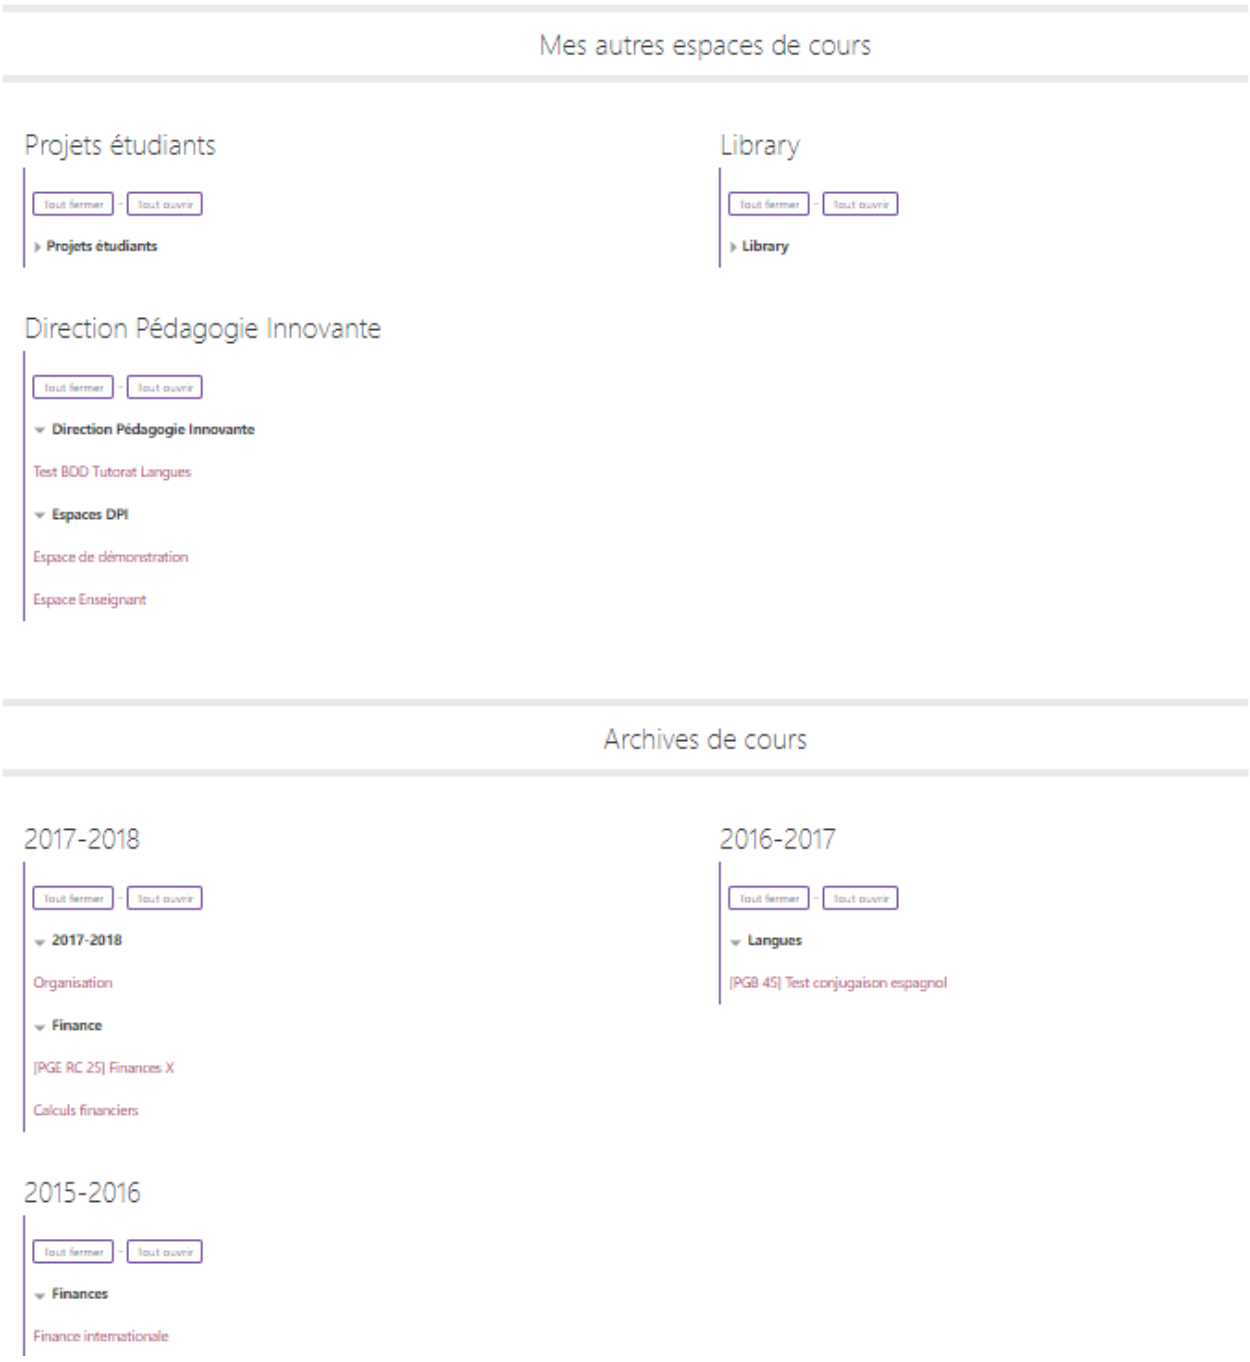

Introduction

The request:

- Be able to display specific courses in two specialised course areas. A first one to display tutorials and ancillary courses, a second one to display archives.

The answer:

- Creation of a second specific course area that can point to 9 different course categories
- Call each of the two specific areas with the widgets course_areas and course_areas2
- Use the widget static_<n> to create a nice separation between the two course areas
