MY Dashboard Page: Use Case 7

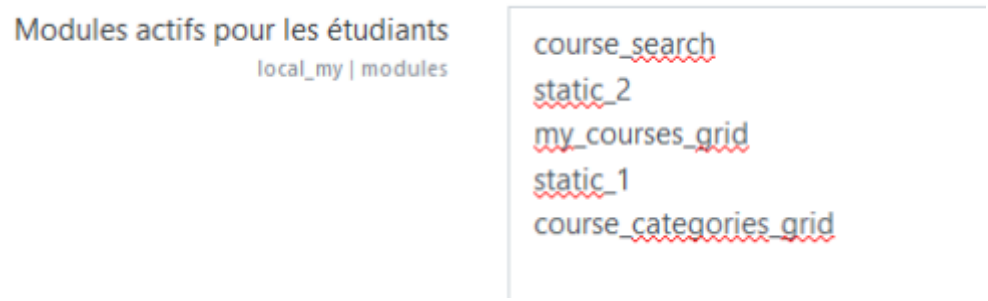

Introduction

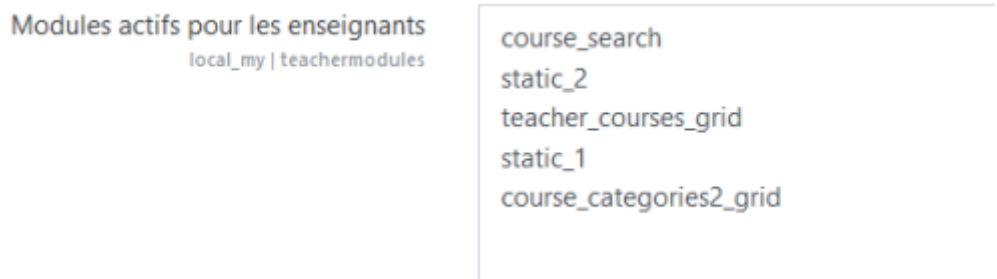

The request:

- Be able to display specific course categories in two zones (specific areas) on the dashboard: the first to display categories to students, the second area to display categories to the other roles.

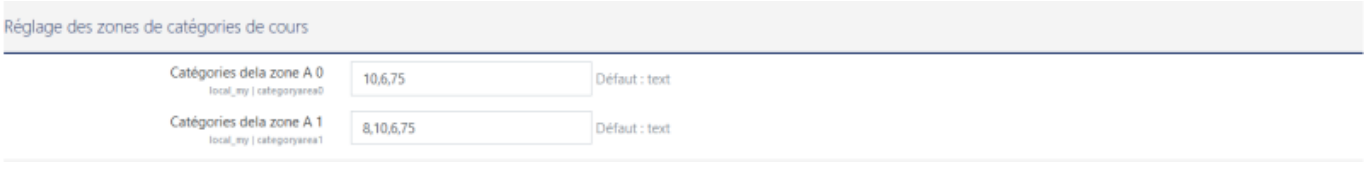

The answer:

- Creation of two specific widgets course_categories_grid and course_categories2_grid, each called on the relevant active module:

- students will see the course categories 10,6,75
- the other roles will see the categories 10,6,75,8
