

Course Element Subtype : Unit heading

Generally a course unit is a big subdivision of a course (say, a course chapter). When using the format de cours page that allows dividing the course into several pages, this may be used to introduce set of course pages arranged into a sub unit.

If you are using standard course formats, you may choose to use units as subdivision of course sequence. Templates may be adjusted accordingly by the integrator to reflect adequate styling of this hierarchy organization.

LES DIFFÉRENTS PROFILS COGNITIFS

Il s'agit, à partir du test d'Howard Gardner sur les intelligences multiples, de réfléchir sur les différences d'apprentissage.
